TERMS:

Fill in the terms of the agreement you have reached.

Be sure you set out all the conditions agreed on.

Be careful to show the full amount of any money to be paid.

If you have agreed on interest be sure the amount of interest and how it is to be calculated is shown.

Before agreeing to any terms of payment you must check with the Sheriff's Office to see if there is an installment order under the Judgment Enforcement Act in place against this debtor. If there is an installment order already in place you cannot agree to a payment schedule and must consult the Sheriff's Office. If there is no installment order in place and you have agreed payments are to be made, set out the date(s) and amount(s) of the payment(s).

Specify what will happen if a payment is missed.

Fill in today's date and sign the agreement.

month | day | year | signature of plaintiff

Be sure everyone involved in the case signs the order.
