List what you want the person to bring to court.

You are required to bring the following records and other things:

What happens at the payment hearing?

Evidence may be heard about any of the following:

- a) the income and assets of the debtor;
- b) the debts owed to and by the debtor;
- c) any assets that the debtor has disposed of since the claim arose;
- d) the means that the debtor has, or may have in the future, of paying the amount owed.

Can the summons be canceled?

Any person who is served with a Summons to a Payment Hearing may apply to a judge who may

- a) cancel the summons if the person is not the right person to provide information on behalf of the debtor, and
- b) direct the court to issue a new summons to someone who is the right person to provide the information.

What happens if the person summoned does not attend?

If the creditor asks, the Judge can issue a warrant for the arrest of the person.
