

PRACTICE NOTE

RE: Applications, Estates of Mentally Incompetent Persons

Applications to the Court in the Estates of Mentally Incompetent Persons are to be made in accordance with Rule 29 of the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1986, in the following manner:

If letters of guardianship have been granted by the Court or if the admission slip from the Waterford Hospital has been filed in the Probate Office, the Application has to be made by an Interlocutory Application to be filed in the Probate Office. If no prior documentation has been filed with the Court, the Application has to be by way of an Originating Application and filed in the Registry.
