

Form 10: Notice to the Attorney General

The purpose of this form is to provide notice to the Attorney General when a case raises issues that may be of interest to him/her. The Attorney General has a right to participate in an appeal in which he/she has an interest.

On the form fill out the following:

The heading: Use the same heading as is used in the Notice of Appeal. (See guideline 1.)

The style of cause: Use the same style of cause as is used in the Notice of Appeal. (See guideline 1.)

Subject matter of the appeal: Give a brief overview of what the appeal is about. This need not be lengthy but try to specify the type of appeal (for example, family law, constitutional law, civil litigation) and the issues that are raised by the appeal.

State why the notice is required. For example, notice to the Attorney General may be required by statute or directed by the Court. An example of a statutory or legislative requirement is where an issue in the appeal raises a constitutional question (Judicature Act, RSNL 1990, c. J-4, s. 57).

Reason for the notice to the Attorney General: Outline briefly the issues which may be of interest to the Attorney General. These may be issues regarding challenges to the constitutionality of legislation or when an order is sought on constitutional grounds.

Date and sign the form.

When the application or appeal will be heard: The Court registry will fill out the bottom portion of the form, which indicates the date and time when the application or appeal will be heard.

Filing and Serving: Serve the Attorney General at least 15 days before the appeal or application is set to be heard or as directed by the Court.
