(rule 4.04(2))

Rules of the Supreme Court of Newfoundland, 1986

PRACTICE NOTE

PN. No. 2000-1

DATE ISSUED: September 20, 2000 RULES AFFECTED: Rule 14.02

EFFECTIVE DATE: upon publication

PREVIOUS PRACTICE NOTES REVISED: N/A

The following Practice Note was filed with the Registrar, as Secretary of the Rules Committee of the Trial Division, and is published pursuant to rule 4.04 of the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1986:

PLEADINGS: FORMAL REQUIREMENTS

The current electronic computer system used in the Registries of the Supreme Court provides for the entry of information to further and better identify the parties. Whenever the relevant information is available, it is entered on the system. However, such information has not always been provided. Consequently, this Practice Note is issued in order to ensure that such information is provided on a regular basis.

Every originating document, and every pleading adding a new party, shall contain in a separate paragraph the complete residential address, and postal address if different, as well as occupation if known, of each party.

This requirement is effective immediately. Registry staff have been instructed to request such information when known and to enter all such information on the system when provided.
