

How to Apply to Vary an Interim Order

Instructions

You can make an Application to Vary an Interim Order (Form 19.02A) if your circumstances have changed since an interim order was made and you would like to change that interim order.

When You Can Make an Application to Vary an Interim Order

You can ONLY apply to vary an interim order if you have permission from a judge to do so. You may use this form to request permission.

Completing Your Application

You can fill out this form by hand or you can download and fill out this form electronically at www.court.nl.ca/supreme/family/forms.html (If you fill out the form electronically, you must still print the form and file it with the Court). You must fill out the entire form. If you require more space to fill out any section of this form, attach an extra page and indicate which section is continued on the extra page.

Filing Your Application

You must make 2 extra copies of your completed and signed Application to Vary (including any additional documents). To file the Application to Vary, you must bring the Application to the Supreme Court location where your family law file is or you can mail it to that location (with the filing fee attached). You can look up the fees online: <https://www.court.nl.ca/supreme/schedule-of-fees/>

If you get permission from a judge, the Court will schedule a date for an Interim Application hearing (and write that date on the front page of this form).

Serving Your Application

If you get permission, you must give a copy of this Application form and the date of the hearing to the other person at least 10 days before the hearing date that the Court provides to you. This is called service. You can serve the other person by: personal service (an adult, who is not you, can hand-deliver the document), leaving a copy with the other person's lawyer, leaving a copy at the other person's address, registered mail/courier, or regular mail. You can also serve the other person using fax, email, or electronic document exchange, if the other person has provided that information.

How to Respond to an Application to Vary an Interim Order

Instructions

You have been served with an Application to Vary an Interim Order.

This means that the other person in your family law proceeding is asking the Court to change an interim order that is in place.

Read the attached Application to Vary carefully.

If you want to oppose any claim(s) made in the Application to Vary an Interim Order, you must file ONE affidavit in response. You can get an Affidavit template form at any Supreme Court location or online:

www.court.nl.ca/supreme/family/forms.html

Your affidavit should set out your position on the issues in the Application to Vary and any important details or information.

You must give a copy of your Affidavit to the other person at least 4 days before the hearing date indicated on the front page of the Interim Application.

If you do not respond or do not appear at the hearing date, the Court may proceed and make an order without hearing from you.
