

How to Request a Settlement Conference

Instructions

A settlement conference is an informal meeting where you and the other person meet to hear each other's proposals and look for solutions that are acceptable to everyone. A judge will assist you. You can request a settlement conference if you want to negotiate a resolution and have more control over the outcome of your case. If your settlement conference is unsuccessful, you can go to trial.

Any discussions that take place in a settlement conference cannot be brought up or used against you if you go to trial. If you go to trial, your trial judge will be different from your settlement conference judge, unless you and the other person agree otherwise.

A binding settlement conference is similar to a settlement conference, except that you both agree that the settlement conference judge can make a decision. This decision becomes a final order and is binding.

Before you can file a Request for a Settlement Conference (Form F25.03A), you must already have a scheduled date for a case management hearing. A judge will consider your request at that case management hearing.

Completing a Request for a Settlement Conference

You can fill out this form by hand or you can download and fill out this form electronically at www.court.nl.ca/supreme/family/forms.html (If you fill out the form electronically, you must still print the form, file it with the Court, and serve a copy on the other person).

You must fill out pages 1-3 of the form. If you are requesting a binding settlement conference, you must also fill out and attach Schedule 1. If you need more space to fill out any section of this form, attach an extra page and indicate which section is continued on the extra page.

Filing a Request for a Settlement Conference

You must make 2 extra copies of your signed Request for a Settlement Conference. To file your Request, bring the original Request form to the Supreme Court location where your family law file is or mail the Request to that Supreme Court location.

Serving a Request for a Settlement Conference

You must give a copy of this Request form to the other person at least 7 days before your case management hearing date. This is called service. You can serve the other person by: personal service (an adult, who is not you, can hand-deliver the document), leaving a copy with the other person's lawyer, leaving a copy at the other person's address, registered mail/courier, or regular mail. You can also serve the other person using fax, email, or electronic document exchange, if the other person has provided that information. The other person can respond by filing their own Request for a Settlement Conference form.

How to Respond to a Request for a Settlement Conference

Instructions

You have been served with a Request for a Settlement Conference (Form 25.03A). This means that the other person wants to schedule a settlement conference or binding settlement conference. At your next case management hearing, the judge will decide whether you should go to a settlement conference.

Responding to a Request for a Settlement Conference

To respond to the other person's request, you must fill out your own Request for a Settlement Conference form. You can get this form at any Supreme Court location or online:

www.court.nl.ca/supreme/family/forms.html. Even if you do not agree to a settlement conference, you must still fill out your own Request form. You can check off the option on the form to indicate that you do not agree to a settlement conference. A judge may still order you to attend a settlement conference.
